VANDERGRIFT DISTILLERY ROBBED OF A LARGE AMOUNT OF WHISKEY

Two Men Now Being Held In France For The Theft

HAS AN INTERNATIONAL ASPECT

A case of unusual interest, and which has assumed an international aspect, is expected to reach its climax today in a French port, if Atlantic liners are run on schedule. The case had its beginning in East Bethlehem township, near Centerville station on the M. & S. railroad, and the charges read burglarly, felonious breaking and entering and larceny. Violation of the emigration laws also enters into the affair.

The cause of the trouble is the theft of a large amount of whiskey from the Vandergrift Distilling company, and the officials of the company. R. P. South, president, E. N. South, vice president, and Furman South, Jr., secretary-treasurer, are prosecuting the case.

The principals in the case are Agostino Spinozza and Adam Santeri, who are charged with stealing and selling 32 barrels of bonded whiskey, the property of the Vandergrift distillery. The theft was discovered and suspicion directed towards these two men on September 9, and immediate steps were taken to apprehend them.

Spinozza operated a ferry on the river at that point, and also owned a houseboat It is charged that he took the whiskey from the distillery, placed it on the houseboat and sold it by the barrel, gallon, quart, pint and even by the drink On the 9th of September he sold his property and left the river section. Being a foreigner it was believed he would make an attempt to leave the United States.

Emigration authorities of seaport cities were notified and the two men were located and held for 24 hours in New York. No definite charge being made against them they were released and allowed to go their way. At that time Spinozza had $30,000 with him.

A few days later the two men boarded a French liner, and were due to arrive in Havre today. The French authorities have been notified through the state department to hold them, on a charge of violating the emigration laws. Action was taken against these men by assistant District Attorney Howard W. Hughes, and at present papers of extradition are being prepared by United States District Attorney Lowry W. Humes.

When the theft of the whiskey had been discovered secret service men were placed on the case and they soon worked out the facts which led to the arrest of the men in the French port. The value of the whiskey stolen was $18,000.

The Frances Willard class will meet Friday night at the home of Mrs. Bruce Barnett, 314 Meadow avenue, with Mrs. Harry Frye, Mrs. Warrensford and Mrs. Barnett as hostesses.

WEDDING BELLS FOR TWO CHARLEROI COUPLE

A double wedding, with the principals from Charleroi, took place in Wellsburg, W. Va., on Monday, when Miss Alice Henry and John Sosanko; and Miss Mary Costello and Joseph Sethman were united in the bonds of matrimony Both couples returned home Monday evening and a reception was tendered them at the home of Miss Henry, 1107 McKean avenue, eighty guests being present. Both couples expect to go to housekeeping in Charleroi.

DONORA PARADERS ARE TURNED BACK

A parade of Donora strikers, which was to have been held in Monessen this morning, was prevented by the State Police. Monessen authorities were advised this morning that the Donora delegation was coming, and they immediately prepared to receive them. The Citizens Protective League was called to assemble at the athletic park, which former service men enlisted for the time being assembled at the borough building. The service men were equipped with riot guns, and marched to the Monessen borough line, being followed by the Protective League. Here they halted while the State Police went down the brick highway to Webster.

There they met the parade of the Donora delegation, which had just crossed the bridge. The police told them they would not be allowed to parade in Monessen and the best thing they could do was to turn around and go home. After a short argument the strikers turned and retraced their steps, and by the time Donora was reached the parade had about dissolved.

While in Webster the state police arrested five foreigners from Donora who were carrying weapons and they were placed in the Monessen lockup. Wednesday night 29 men, all foreigners, were arrested in Monessen, for carrying concealed weapons and placed in the lockup.

Monessen is very quiet today, the civic organization, the returned service men and the state police maintaining the best of order.

Notice.

A meeting of Charleroi Civic League will be held Friday evening September 26, at 8 o'clock in Masonic Banquet Hall, corner Fifth Street, and McKean avenue. You are earnestly requested to attend. Important business will be brought before the organization.

By order of Chairman.

Mass Meeting To Promote The Cause Of Irish Freedom

A mass meeting in the interest of Irish freedom, will be held in the Coyle theatre, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Prominent speakers have been secured to make addresses on various phases of the situation in Ireland, in which the Home Rule feature will largely predominate. The speakers secured by the local committee in charge of the meeting, are, William J. Brennan, Esq., and Joseph A. Burns, Esq., both of Pittsburg. John McGlade, Esq., the well known young attorney from Donora, and Col. Joe Thompson, of Beaver, of the old "Fighting Tenth," and later in command of the One Hundred and Tenth Infantry during the world war.

This list of speakers is expected to prove very attractive, and the promoters of the meeting anticipate a crowded house to hear them.

The meeting is held in connection with the movement to raise a fund in the United States which will be used to educate the people with relation to the Irish situation. Washington county is expected to raise $5,000 of this sum, and Charleroi is asked to raise several hundred dollars.

The features of the movement now under way are set forth as follows:

1. To urge and insist that Ireland, one of the oldest nations of Europe, be recognized as a free and independent nation.

2. To oppose and offset propaganda which is falsifying and misrepresenting the facts of American history and Irish history.

3. To insist that the truth of the case of Ireland be made known to the American people.

BRINGS ACTION TO RECOVER DAMAGES

John Dugan has brought suit against Joe Obradovich to recover $200, with interest from September 14, 1919, for alleged damages to the automobile of the plaintiff by reason of a collision with the machine owned by the defendant. The statement of claim sets forth that on September 14, last, the car of the defendant crashed into the plaintiff's machine, breaking the radiator, steering rod, fender, bumper and frame. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock in the evening and on the road from Charleroi to Bentleyville. The plaintiff charges that the defendant's car was driven by the latter's wife, although Obradovich was seated in the front seat with her. It seems from the statement filed, that Mrs. Obradovich was just learning to drive, and when she met the plaintiff's car she ran into it. Negligence is charged by the plaintiff.

Two men from Pittsburg held by Constable Stablein on warrants issued from an alderman's office in that city, were taken to the city on the 10:16 train this morning. The men had been detained in the lockup at city hall, and a Pittsburg detective took them in charge for the trip to the city.

NOMINATIONS ON COUNTY TICKETS

Outside of the fight for county commissioner, there were very few regular Democratic candidates for any of the other county offices. Those who were regular candidates on the Democratic ticket were. John A. Gault, Jr., for registerer of wills; H. L. Hetherington and Clark R. Tilton for director of the poor; J. Albert Reed for district attorney; Benjamin D. Lobb for sheriff, all of whom had no opposition for the nomination. Others who were nominated on the Democratic ticket by reason of receiving scattered votes were as follows: J. Plummer Leech for prothonotary; Ernest upzOlThisingDirohBrid- THAROLD Kahl for clerk of courts; W. R. Bridges for treasurer, and D. J. McAdam for county surveyor.

The Socialist party had no regular candidates in the field, but the following were nominated: County Commissioners, Johnson and Walker; District Attorney, Erwin Cummins; Sheriff, Alex Gray; Coroner, William Greenlee; Prothonotary, H. E. Pollock; Treasurer, James P. Castner; Poor Directors, Bagshaw and Hawkins; Register of Wills, John Aiken; County Surveyor, George Cheney.

No Disorder Of Any Kind In Either Town Past Few Days

OFFICERS TO MAINTAIN PEACE

Reports from Donora today indicate that everything is quiet in the big steel town down the river, and that no trouble of any kind is anticipated. Following payday of Tuesday and the promise of District Manager Jewett of the Pittsburg district that no attempt would be made to run the mill with strikebreakers, the town took on a Sunday aspect, and not an incident occurred to mar the peace of the community. In fact, as one of the residents expressed it, the day was "like Sunday." There were no crowds or assemblies at any of the mill gates, only a few men being seen at any of these entrances. What were there appeared to be drawn more by curiosity than by any desire to make trouble.

It is reported that a number of the minor officials of the Donora plants are being sent to other towns, and that orders have been given to the Pennsylvania railroad to remove much of the coke, ore and other raw materials from the yards there This has given rise to the rumor that the Donora mills will be down for quite a period of time, possibly several months. If this should prove to be the case it will mean a very dull period for the business men as well as the residents of Donora.

In Monessen everything is peaceful. The edict of Burgess Stewart prohibiting parades and mass meetings, and the swearing in of several hundred deputies with instruction to maintain peace, and to resist with force if necessary any attempt at violence on the part of the strikers, has had a good effect on the situation. A large number of mill men have been sworn in as deputies and are now on duty in and around the various plants.

PLACING THE BLAME

The American Legion Weekly, the official organ of the American Legion, publishes in this week's issue an attack on the Federal Board for Vocational Training. Congress and the war risk insurance bureau, asserting that up to September 4 last only thirty-three men out of the 220,000 Americans disabled during the world war had been completely trained and established in employment by the board.

"Certainly no one should appreciate better than the men who served that the hearts of the people are right," the article says, "but the penniless and jobless cripple, who cashed in the vigor of his manhood on the fighting front may sometimes find it difficult to differentiate between the sentiments of that people and the inexcusable incompetence of its public servants. The public servants in this case are the members of the Sixty-fifth Congress, which promulgated a law providing for the rehabilitation of maimed men, that aspired so high and achieved so little that the Federal Board which has presented an even more lamentable spectacle in its bungling efforts to function under the statute.

"Washington figures of September 4 last," the Weekly continues, "we give the number of men placed in employment, with no training or incomplete training, as 16,410. It is further shown that of this number 12,820 were self-placed," or men who found their own jobs.

If you don't understand yourself, why expect others to do so?

SAYS OLD "DOCTOR NATURE" THE BEST

He Will Perform Wonders no Human Physician Need Ever Hope to Equal

Thousands of Pennsylvania people are now taking Ten-Herbs, although this remarkable new remedy for stomach ailments and a general run-down condition has only been on the market for a short time its success has been instantaneous. No medicine ever introduced here has made such a quick record of popular approval according to the local druggists.

The Ten-Herb man, an expert direct from the Ten-Herb laboratories, gives the following explanation of the action of Ten-Herbs:

"The prime cause of nine-tenths of chronic ill health is intestinal and stomach fermentation. Food which should be digested and manufactured into rich, pure, healthy blood, literally rots in the stomach and bowels, forming a virulent poison. This poison gets into the blood through the kidneys and liver, which are themselves affected by the toxic juices so that they cannot perform their functions properly.

"All kinds of disorders result. There is gas formation after eating, and pains, either sharp or shooting or dull and continuous, are liable to be felt wherever the blood carries this fermentation poison. An excess of uric acid forms in the flood, causing rheumatism; chalky deposits collect at the bone joints and severe muscular pains are felt.

"These conditions eventually break down the bodily tissues and reduce the number of leucocytes (white corpuscles in the blood) and this lowers the victim's so-called powers of resistance to disease. Germs of catarrh and influenza, even consumption, find the chronic sufferer easy prey.

"The body becomes emaciated and the patient is subject to fits of uncontrollable nervousness, a dull fear or foreboding as to the future is a common symptom. The vital forces of the body diminish and there is a lack of ambition and interest in life.

"Ten-Herbs goes right to the root of the whole trouble, by relieving the cause of the various ailments. Ten-Herbs gives nature a chance and Old Doctor Nature is the best physician on earth. Give him the right kind of aid and he will work wonders that no human doctor can perform. That is the secret of Ten-Herbs' wonderful success."

Ten-Herbs is sold in Charleroi at Henning's Drug Store.
